For Robbie Lewis

Keven Llyn writes:

“I printed out a copy of the XRAY for Robbie with instructions to fill it out, and the only thing he put on was "Skylanders" action figures... I can provide a list of what we have and what hasn't been released yet later.

“He's also expressed interest in a recent Zelda video game and Legos, but I don't have the specifics.

“And if this annoys anyone else as much as it does me, he wears men's small underwear. I'll try to get him to provide a real list, the creep.”
